JOAN SZYMKO MUSIC

Joan Szymko (b.1957)

Joan Szymko's choral music is regularly performed at regional, national and international choral festivals, competitions and conferences; including at eight consecutive National Conferences of the American Choral Directors Association (2003-17). She is particularly noted for her large catalog of compelling repertoire for women's choir. The ACDA recognized Szymko's lasting impact on the choral arts in America by selecting her as the recipient of the prestigious Raymond W. Brock Memorial Commission in 2010. Composing for vocal ensembles is an extension of Joan's creativity as a choral director. Her passion for the singing voice, an embodied approach to sound, a dedication to craft and artistry, an insistence on quality texts— all relate to her work as a conductor and are reflected in her compositions. Abundant lyricism, rhythmic integrity and a vigorous attention to text are hallmarks of her diverse and distinctive choral writing. In addition to her self published catalog, Szymko has over sixty published titles with Santa Barbara Music, Roger Dean Music Publishing, Walton Music, earthsongs, Treble Clef Press and Yelton Rhodes Music. She is a founding member of the Independent Music Publishers Cooperative.

Joan Szymko lives and works in the beautiful Pacific Northwest. She enjoyed a fruitful collaboration with Portland based Do Jump! Movement Theater as resident composer (1995-2012), creating underscoring for major touring productions. She served on the choral music faculty of Portland State University (2013-15) and has Aurora Chorus as Artistic Director since 1993. As a visiting artist, she workshops her compositions with choirs in a variety of educational and festival settings across the country and abroad.

Love Bears All Things

1 Corinthians 13:7-8

Love bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.
Love never fails.

PROGRAM NOTES

I was commissioned by Eugene Vocal Arts in 2014 through a grant from the Oregon Community Foundation's "Creative Heights" initiative to create the libretto and compose the music for a major work for chorus and orchestra on the subject of Alzheimer's dementia. After eight months researching both medical and personal aspects of Alzheimer's, including several interviews with care-partners (persons afflicted with dementia and their loved ones), I conceived a libretto in three parts with a total of sixteen movements. Using quotes of patients, their loved ones, classic poetry of Dickinson and Rilke, hymn text and scripture, my own words, and compelling contemporary poetry directly related to Alzheimer's, my intent was to bear beautiful, loving witness to a growing population of care-partners that feels largely invisible and ignored. My hope was to create something universal, beyond the scope of the disease. "Shadow and Light, an Alzheimer's Journey," composed over the course of 2015, is scored for SATB chorus, mezzo-soprano, tenor and soprano soli, and chamber orchestra (2,2,2,2 - 2hrn, 2 tpt, 2 perc, hrp, pno, strgs).

"Love Bears All Things," the 16th and final movement, is an expression of the enduring love that prevails when all else— all words, all memory, all physical function fails. In this stand alone choral title, singers take on the string harmonies from the original orchestration at rehearsal letters "B" and "D". The unflagging piano ostinato, the key aspect of the original orchestration remains.

For their April 2016 world premiere performance of "Shadow and Light," Eugene Vocal Arts Chamber Choir was named winner of The American Prize: Ernst Bacon Memorial Award for the Performance of American Music, 2016-17 (community division.) That premiere was met with accolades from audience, reviewers and from the granting foundation. Despite the tragic nature of the subject, chorus members, soloists and orchestra members found "Shadow and Light" a joy to perform. Commissioning Conductor Dr. Diane Retallack remarked: "This is truly a masterwork and deserves a place in the standard choral repertory." An AO Films documentary made about the project was awarded Best Documentary at the 2017 Oregon Independent Film Festival. A CD/DVD 2-disc set of the entire work, including this documentary is available by contacting choir@eugeneconcertchoir.org. — Joan Szymko
